Block Flow

[Ki]

Prerequisites Wis 13, ki pool class feature or ki Meditation feat

Benefit
As a standard action, you can make a touch attack and expend 1 point from your ki pool. If the target possesses a ki pool, its ability to spend points from its ki pool is blocked for a number of rounds equal to your Wisdom bonus. A Will save (DC 10 + 1/2 your character level + Wisdom modifier) negates this effect. If the target has more points in its ki pool than you when you use this power, the cost to use this power is increased by 1.

Ebbing Flow

[Ki]

Prerequisites Wis 15, ki pool class feature or ki Meditation feat, Heal 5 ranks

Benefit
As long as you have at least 1 point in your ki pool, you gain the benefit of a constant deathwatch effect, but only with regard to creatures adjacent to you. You can also observe and manipulate ebbing flows. Spending 1 point from your ki pool allows you to bleed, deathwatch, or stabilize as a standard action. If you have at least 3 points in your ki pool, you can also detect the presence and location of living creatures within 100 feet.

Focused Kai

[Combat, Ki]

Prerequisites Wis 13, ki pool class feature or ki Meditation feat, Improved Kai, Kai

Benefit
Your Kai deals additional sonic damage to your Wisdom modifier. In addition, you can shape the effect of your about into a cone 10 feet long or a line 20 feet long per point you spend from your ki pool.

Ki Meditation

[Ki]

Prerequisites Wis 13, you must have no levels in a class that has a ki pool.

Benefit
Once per day, after resting or meditating for 8 hours, you gain a ki pool containing 1 point of ki. When you meditate, select a skill in which you have at least 1 rank. As long as you have at least 1 point in your ki pool, you gain a +2 insight bonus to that skill; you may change this skill the next time you meditate for 8 hours. When making a skill check for the selected skill, as a free action you can spend 1 point from your ki pool to double your insight bonus to +4.

Object Reading

[Ki]

Prerequisites Wis 13, ki pool class feature or ki Meditation feat

Benefit
As long as you have at least 1 point in your ki pool, allowing you to add your Wisdom modifier as an insight bonus to Knowledge (History) checks you make about any object you handle for at least 1 round, and as a full-round action you can detect magic at will on one item per round simply by handling it. By studying an object for 1 minute and spending 1 ki point, you can use detect chaos/evil/good/law or identify on that object. By meditating upon an object for 1 hour and spending 2

REFERENCE

Transcendental Communion Int 13, Wis 13, must know tongues as a spell or spell-like ability | Spend ki to overcome language barriers

Unbounded Conversion Int 13, Wis 13, Cha 13, ability to spontaneously cast spells | Spend ki to use spontaneous metamagic without increasing casting time

Unyielding Stance * | Spend ki to resist effects that move you

Yugic Levitation * | Spend ki to levitate or feather fall

* Other than Ki Meditation, all ki feats require either a ki pool or the Ki Meditation feat and a Wisdom score of 13 as prerequisites; therefore, those prerequisites are not repeated for every feat on the table.

[*] At the GM's option, these ki feats may be considered lost to general knowledge, available only to those who have access to ancient tomes of forgotten wisdom or who have been mentored in their use, such as those described in Chapter 2.
